COORDINATOR

message

Life groups and Serve groups are a foundational way we love God and love people. When we are connected in godly friendships (plainly, in fellowship!), we are in relationships that Jesus intended and demonstrated during His earthly ministry. We give life and receive life in small groups.

Resurrection Life Church's genetics are based on creating opportunities for us to connect in groups beyond Sunday worship. The diversity of group topics is tremendous: hobby and ministry passions; Bible study and how-to learning; and support in life skills and family roles. Many groups have been in place for years; other groups are new, reflecting new interests, needs, and passions. There is a group for everyone where they can move their journey with the Lord forward.

Join and participate! The Lord has given me countless instances to bless others in Life groups I joined over the years, and, as the Bible assures, I have been continually filled with joy and peace from the fellowship. The gracious Life group and Serve group leaders, as well as the church pastors, want to see you experience the same blessings. Enjoy!

The woman on the right is wearing a brown corduroy jacket over a white t-shirt and has her left arm raised. They are both smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a dimly lit room with other people blurred in the background.
