Some people would say that we here at Resurrection Life focus too much on relationships. I would say that they are wrong. I believe that we don't focus enough. God created us to have relationship with Him and with each other. Groups are part of who we are. It is in our DNA. God has called us to live life together, loving, learning, and listening to each other. It was never intended for us to be alone.

We believe life change happens in the context of RELATIONSHIPS.

Meaningful relationships can be hard to find, and Lifegroups exist to make life-changing relationships relevant and accessible to you. Jesus never asked people to come to church; He said "Come follow me." Lifegroups have one, simple purpose: to bring people together.

During this semester of groups--life groups and serve groups-- prayerfully consider how God wants you to engage with others and how you can take those relationships to another level, where God is glorified and others benefit.

Our church exists to bring hope to our community and part of how we do that is to engage our community in relationships. If you sit Sunday after Sunday just soaking it all in, well it is time you get squeezed and for all that God has poured into you to come out and soak others, bringing hope to them. You can do that by getting involved in a life or serve group this semester.

You have nothing to lose but so much to gain.

In Christ,
Pastor
